

THE BURGHFIELD
HOUSE HOTEL

DORNOCH, SUTHERLAND

The above photograph shows the 3rd green on Royal Dornoch Golf Course where golf has been played on the links since 1616. A measure of the esteem in which the Course is held is that it has been chosen as the venue for the 1980 Home International Championship.

Some descriptive quotes from golf writers —

Herbert Warren Wind, New York:

In a word I found Dornoch all I had hoped it would be, a thoroughly modern old links with that rare equipoise of charm and character that only the great courses possess.

Sam McKinlay, Glasgow:

Dornoch is one of the truly great courses which is an equal joy to the mighty and the mediocre.

Donald Steel, Sunday Telegraph:

It would be hard to think of a course that ranks above it as a pure test of golf, or one that is more enjoyable to play.

Pat Ward-Thomas, England:

I was enraptured by a superb links that sweeps in a great majestic curve along the shores of the Firth.

Burghfield has been run by the Currie family since 1946 and is renowned for its friendly and informal atmosphere.

There are 48 bedrooms – 16 in the main building and 32 in the new wing and annexe, some with private bathrooms.

There are 2 lounges, 2 cocktail bars, TV room and games room.

The hotel stands in 5½ acres of garden overlooking the 13th century Cathedral and Dornoch. It is only a few minutes from the world-famous Royal Dornoch Golf Course and miles of sandy beaches.

Boats are available on 2 lochs and plenty of other fishing can be arranged.

It is an ideal place for a family holiday, golf, fishing and as a centre for touring the North.

We take great pride in the cuisine. There is an extensive menu ranging from classical to Highland fare using the very best of local prime beef, game, poultry, salmon, fish and shell-fish.

The garden and greenhouses, in season, supply most of the vegetables and flowers.

To complement the menu there is an extensive wine list.

Burghfield is one of the few hotels in the North to be recommended in Egon Ronay's Good Food Guide. It is also recommended by Ashley Courtenay.

Alterations to conform with the Fire Precautions Act have been completed and the hotel possesses a valid Fire Certificate.
